

ABH WARRANTY POLICY

Standard Products

ABH warrants that its products sold in the United States of America are free from defects in material or workmanship under normal use and service for a period of one year from the date of shipment.

Repair or replacement of defective products during this period shall be the only remedy under this warranty. This warranty does not cover defects of damage as a result of improper use or maintenance, abuse, accident, ordinary wear and tear, or shipping and handling.

ABH shall not be liable for any repairs, replacements, or adjustments to the product or any cost of labor performed by the Purchaser or others without prior written approval.

Aluminum Hinges

ABH Manufacturing, Inc. warrants our Geared Hinges to be free of defects in materials and workmanship. ABH Geared Hinges will not fail under normal use, as long as they are installed according to instructions provided with each hinge. The ABH warranty covers the hinge for the life of the opening. Hinges that have been cut or altered in the field will be void of warranty. Our hinges are proudly manufactured in the U.S.A.

SS Hinges

ABH Manufacturing, Inc. warrants our Stainless Steel Hinges to be free of defects in materials and workmanship for a period of 10 Years. Warranty does not cover any damage to hinge outside the control of ABH Manufacturing. Hinges that have been cut or altered in the field will be void of warranty. Our hinges are proudly manufactured in the U.S.A.

The Purchaser must promptly inform ABH in writing of any failure to conform to this Warranty.
